LOOKING AHEAD

Numerous inquiries have been made regarding plans for events surrounding the December 24th game at Tampa Bay. Packer Dave is still working on it and will pass the info on to everyone as soon as he hears anything. You may remember that last year, there were two sets of tail-gate parties. The original fiesta, which was sponsored by Bob Goodwin who has held his well over the past ten years... and, a gathering sponsored by America's Pack. Both have indicated that they will be back on Christmas Eve.

Since we are on the subject... if anyone is interested in becoming the person to organize a chartered bus to the game and back... that would be great! Check with Packer Dave if you want to take on this mission. His Packer Hotline is 239-1773. Again this year, you will be able to purchase Packer/Tampa tickets through the CFGBPB club... details forthcoming.

THE LONGEST WAIT

Bob Pum finally got Green Bay Packer tickets... after being on the waiting list for 24-years.

Incredibly, the Packers are so popular that more than 13,000 fans are on the waiting list for season tickets. Only six superfans gave up their seats last year. At that rate, it will be 2,000 years before the last Packer fanatic on the list gets a season seat.

STICK AROUND

Don't forget that you are invited to stick around Chi-Chi's after the Packer games to watch one of several satellite games not available on local television.

KISSIMMEE KENT'S KORNER

Thanks for the large and loud crowd for last weeks game against Philadelphia. Too bad the Pack could not turn the late fumble into a winning touchdown.

The Kissimmee CFGBPB's tailgate schedule is as follows: October 9 (New England)-Potluck. you bring you own brats, burgers, etc. and a dish to share. We supply the grills, charcoal, condiments, etc. November 20 (Buffalo)-We supply the brats, BYOB. December 18 (Atlanta)-We supply the brats, BYOB.

GO BIG RED!

After a big loss last week to Colorado, the AP College football poll dropped the Badgers from tenth to 16th place. All Badger games can be viewed at Kissimmee Chi-Chi's, depending on availability.
