KISSIMMEE KENT'S KORNER

A great tailgate at the Kissimmee Chi-Chi's last week! Thanks to all who participated. Special thanks to (take a deep breath and brace yourselves) "Bear" Steve who provided a great deal of assistance... and to chief coordinator Packer Pat. Don't forget... the next tailgate at the Kissimmee Chi-Chi's will be on October 15th.

Members, please do not hesitate to offer suggestions that might make Packer football Sundays even better at the two CFGBPB locations.

Also, start getting your groups together for the December 10th trip to Tampa Bay. Details will be announced no later than October 8th. For those making the trip, expect to have your payments in by the end of that month.

Packer Mike (#198) was the bar-tab winner for tonight's game. Remember, next week is the "bye" week. See everyone on October 8th for the big upset of the Cowboys!

MY BANANA'S A LITTLE SLOW

RB Edgar Bennett has given his offensive linemen fruit baskets. He was reminded that Dallas' Emmitt Smith once bought his linemen gold watches. "Yeah, but that was at the end of the season," said Bennett, smiling. "If I get 1,000 yards, you never know!" The Packers last 1,000-yard rusher was Terdell Middleton in 1978. With 204-yards on 63 carries, Bennett is on pace to gain 1,088-yards this season.

FARVE FOR PRESIDENT!

We won't discuss interceptions... but Our Hero Brett Farve is doing pretty doggone good. As farve as passing yards gained so farve this season, Brett has accumulated a total of 752, with only three other QB's with more. What's more, he's thrown more touchdown passes than any other quarterback except Frisco's Steve Young. Here's a few of the latest stats.

Passing	Yds	TD's	Long	Int
Everett (NO)	883	6	70	2
Young (SF)	875	8	54	2
George (Atl)	838	4	54	4
Farve (GB)	752	7	99	4
Mitchell (Det)	691	4	47	2

PACKING FOR HOME

Tonight's game vs. the Jaguars will be a homecoming for Packers LeRoy Butler and Edgar Bennett. Both grew up in Jacksonville, Florida, and were teammates at Robert E. Lee High School. "I'm up to 46 (tickets) and counting," Butler said. "It's going to be important to win this game personally because I have to face those people seven months out of the year. It'll be a little easier on me if we win."

DAYTONA DAVE'S DEPARTMENT

O-K... I'm not from Daytona... I just wanted a catchy headline like "Kissimmee Kent's Korner." It was either that or "Weekiwachee Walraven's Windup" which is even more dumb. Anyway, I'm not here, I'm at the game. See you in two weeks when we take on Dallas Sunday (10/8) at 1pm. Also, start thinking about the "Battle of the Bays" at Tampa on December 10th. Order forms for game and tailgate tickets will be available soon for CFGBPB members. You snooze... you lose. We will only be taking ticket requests up until the end of October.
