THAT'S GOTTA HURT

Last week, Dallas Cowboys star running back Emmitt Smith injured himself on a fake dive play when he landed on his head with under four-minutes to play against the Bears at Soldier Field. Smith was immediately placed on a motorized cart, but had problems getting off the field when a greedy Chicago stadium official made the driver pay a toll before he could exit the field.

GET ME OUTTA HERE!

Packers cornerback Tyrone Williams will stand trial tomorrow for a shooting incident that occurred back during his Cornhuskers days. He said life in jail was fine, but it was a little overcrowded with all the Dallas Cowboys players in there.

NOUN VERSUS ADVERB

After throwing for 246-yards and four touchdowns against Tampa Bay, QB Brett Favre was named "The NFC Offensive Player of the Week."

Personally, we think DT Jim Flanigan of the Bears is much more offensive... but that's our opinion. (He really, really, really, really, really, really stinks.)

PACKER TAPPERS

The C F G B P B club raises their collective beer glasses as a salute to all of those who volunteered their time pouring beer during the tailgate in Tampa last weekend. Each one of the ad-hoc bartenders had their own style serving beer. For instance, Animal's pouring philosophy was "one for you, one for me; one for you, another for me..." Packer Kent filled beer cups only half full whenever someone requested a light beer. And then there's Packer Mike who just stuck his face under the tap.

By-the-way... we hope you had the chance to catch Packer Jerry, Mike, Andrea, Cheryl and Animal on stage with the polka band belting out their rendition of "The Bears Still Suck Polka." Although they can't hold a note and a beer at the same time, at least they got the words right.

Oh... and Packer Mud may of had second row seats for the "Battle of the Bays" on Sunday, but he was in the "front-row" on Saturday night. MMmmmm!?

IT'S PACKER PICNIC TIME AGAIN!

Just a reminder that our first tailgate happens this Sunday (September 15th) at 10am in the parking lot outside Logan's Sports Bar. As usual, there will be free brats, Packer Chris' German potato salad and stuff for all C F G B P B members. The C F G B P B members at Frogger's will be tailgating at their club at the same time too. Get there on time to enjoy the grub! Here's a nice photo of Packer Chris grilling his weinie.
