NINETEEN-SIXTY-THREE

The Green Bay Packers 8-1 start is the best since 1963. That was the season that the Pack lost QB Bart Starr for a couple of games due to a hairline fracture on his passing hand and was temporarily replaced by John Roach who led Green Bay to three straight wins in his absence. It was also the year that Commissioner Pete Rozelle suspended Paul Hornung and the Lions' Alex Karras indefinitely for gambling. Despite finishing 11-2-1, the Bears' 11-1-2 record was enough to stop Green Bay from earning a fourth straight Western Conference title.

FREE BOWLING AND FREE BEER!

Since the Packers play Dallas on a Monday night next week, we're all going to get together for a bowling party next Sunday afternoon. All CFGBPB members are invited for an afternoon of free bowling and free beer (while it lasts) Sunday, November 17th at the Aloma Bowling Center, 2530 Aloma Avenue in Winter Park. (It's approximately 3 miles east of Logan's Sports Bar on Fairbanks/Aloma.) It all starts at 1pm. And, while we're trying to pick up that 7-10 split, we'll be watching some football on all of the overhead screens. Make sure you bring your CFGBPB membership card and wear green and gold. There will be several prizes you could win too!

WHAT A NUMBSKULL

Outspoken Chicago linebacker Bryan Cox said Wednesday that he would retire if numbness in his right foot doesn't go away. Forget about the numbness... we wish Bryan Cox would just go away!

LONG DISTANCE INFORMATION

Nine touchdowns of 50-yards or more make the Green Bay Packers the NFL's official long-distance carrier. If the Packers score two more from midfield or beyond, they'll have the most in one season of any team in the 90's.

Three more and they pass the 1983 Dallas Cowboys for the most since 1980. Here's a look at the Pack's long-distance runarounds:

date	player	play	yards
Oct. 6	Don Beebe	kick return	90
Sept. 15	LeRoy Butler	Interception return	90
Sept. 22	Don Beebe	Reception	80
Sept. 22	George Koonce	Interception return	75
Nov. 3	Don Beebe	Reception	65
Sept. 15	Desmond Howard	Punt return	65
Oct. 14	Don Beebe	Reception	59
Sept. 1	Keith Jackson	Reception	51
Oct. 6	Antonio Freeman	Reception	50

WE WANT TO CLUB YOU

How would you like to win a Green Bay golf putter? It was donated by Packer John O'Leary. Oooh, it's choice. Simply(?) answer the Packers trivia questions the best you can and turn it in to us before the end of today's Packers/Chiefs game. Copies of the quiz are available from club officers. We will then grade them and award the club next week Monday during the Packers/Cowboys game. It looks tough, but who knows, two correct answers could be all it takes to win. In case of a tie, penmanship will be graded. Here's a nice photo of generous John O'Leary. Yes, you could win his putter.
