Free Beer (reality)

No way we'd lie about something that important. Thanks to our beer buddies at the Miller Brewing Company, first 150 Central Florida Packer Backers at One Eyed Jack's and Froggers will receive a complimentary Miller Lite beer mug. Not only that, but the Miller Lite beer will be absolutely free to all members! The Miller Lite beer will begin flowing at 1pm on Sunday, September 7th, 2003...at the exact same moment the Green Bay Packers begin their first regular season football

Phun in Phoenix

Since so many of us had so much fun in New Orleans last year we are going on another "Field Trip," this time to see the Pack in Phoenix! Lucky for us the CFPB founder, Dave Walraven #100, now lives in Arizona and is giving us the hook-up for the Packers-Cardinals game on September 21st. Dave has made this so easy (and cheap) for us it's hard to pass up. Through a deal he made with the Cardinals ticket office a block of face-value $35 tickets is already reserved for us, we just need to let them know how many. On top of that a world-class tailgate party will be held before the game. As anyone who was at the last Packer game in

Froggers To Be Exclusive Place For Preseason Games

The "Packer Porches" at Froggers in Hunter's Creek will be the only official CFPB viewing site for the five August pre-season games. Froggers is located in the Publix Shopping Center (4112 Town Center Blvd) to the west of John Young Parkway just south of the Central Florida Greenway (SR 417). The kickoff time for all five games is 8pm. The "highlight" of the pre-season will once again be "Welcome Back Packers Nite" on Saturday evening August 9th. Free brats will be available on the "Porch" begin-season with lots of brats, beans, beer and the traditional kicking of a bear in da-butt. All Green Bay Packers fans are invited to the annual CFPB Picnic, an afternoon of free Johnsonville brats, Chris' tasty German potato salad, John's thick and saucy beans, and lots of other wonderful picnic-type foods. And it promises to be our best picnic to date as we'll have a lot of tasty extras compliments of Joe Mama's Kountry Katering! Once again this year

Win "Lambeau Leap" Seats!

How would you like a pair of "Lambeau Leap" seats to a Packers game in Green Bay? It could happen! All you have to do is be one of the lucky CFPB members to win the pair of tickets the club will be giving away to the December 28th, 2003 Green Bay-Denver game. Hey, remember... they're not just any tickets, they're "Lambeau Leap" seats... Section 2, Row 2, Seats 7 and 8... which would put you just inches from the North End Zone! How do you win them, you ask? Three ways... attendance, attendance, attendance! The rules are the same as the past five years... each time you watch a Packers game at One Eyed Jack's, your membership number will be entered in the grand prize drawing for those pair of hard-to-get "Lambeau Leap" seats! To even better your chances of winning, be sure to stop by the CFPB Picnic will be held at Barnett Park in Orlando, this time at pavilion #4. The picnic will take place from 11am-4pm on Sunday, July 20th, 2003, so mark your calendars and set the alarms, as you don't want to be late for the social event of the year. Incidentally, Barnett Park is located next to the Central Florida Fairgrounds at 4801 West Colonial Drive (See map above). Besides all the great food you can fit in your face, we'll be holding our annual "Bear Punting Contest," "Sheepshead Tournament" and a relatively newer activity we call the "Titeltown Test"

Seat Toss." This year all eyes (and some mouths) will be on a traditional event we like to call the "Brat and Beer Speed Eating Contest," a prize awarded the previous two years to Packer Dana. Will he join the likes of the Packers of the Glory Years and Three-Peat... or just eat-three? Also, just like last year, we encourage all attendees to bring a dish to the picnic. The club will supply the brats, corn-on-the-cob, soft drinks, and the ants, but just about anything else you can think of to bring to the table should be just fine. Bring your own beer if you are so inclined. Please note that bottled/can beer is not allowed in Orange County parks, but we will supply the plastic cups for you to pour your beers into. Oh, and volunteers will be needed to help at the grill too. Along with all of the fun and games, the club will supply a few choice Packer-type prizes to give away throughout the day too! This year, please refrain from throwing the bear on the grill until after the punting contest is finished. ☺

Yet Another Chance To Win Packer Tickets!

Man, joining the CFPB is better than being on a game show! When was the last time a game show had free beer, brats, and Packer tickets? All you have to do to be eligible to win 2 tickets to a game at Lambeau Field is become a 2003 season member of the club by the end of the first regular season game on September 7th, 2003. The winner will be drawn at halftime of week 2 on September 14th, 2003. This contest is so easy it only has two rules. Rule 1, you have to be present to win, but you're going to be there anyway, right? Rule 2, you have to actually go to the game. Is that easy, or what? Members from both Froggers and One-Eyed Jack's have an equal shot at winning, but only if you "pay your dues"...get it? If I were you I'd be filling out that membership form right now and running to the post office like Donald Driver through the Bears defense. Just don't Lambeau Leap into the mailbox, you'll need a lot more stamps! Special thanks to Packer Todd Koebke #121, who besides being a charter member of the club, is willing to part with some very valuable tickets. ☺

Kissimmee Kent's Korner

How time flies when you are having fun! August 4th will signal the start of my 10th season as the Kissimmee host for the CFPB. Back on August 6th, 1994 an eager crowd was greeted at the Chi-Chi's in Kissimmee to watch the Packers travel to Camp Randall and beat the Rams 14-6. Two years later, on a fateful Friday evening, the club moved to Froggers for a 24-7 route of the Patriots. Over the past 9 years we have been fortunate enough to watch as Green Bay have won just over two-thirds of their games (includes pre-season and playoffs) going 134-63 and played in two Super Bowls. No team has matched the Packers 24 regular season wins the past two years. For you "grizzled veterans," the game day activities at Froggers will be similar to past seasons. The restaurant opens at 11am. Please sign in, grab your "Pulitzer Prize Quality" PackerPage and select your 'squares'. Five minutes before game-time, things get serious as announcements are preceded by the traditional club cheer... a loud, "The Bears Still Suck." For "day" games, the prize drawings will take place during the second half. For "night" games, the drawings will be during the second quarter and the intermission. Remember that you must stay until the final gun to collect your certificate if you select the winning square. Now for the "big" change. The tailgate/potluck on September 21st will be at 1:30 prior to the game at Arizona. The club will provide the brats, beans, potato salad, condiments, plates, cups, napkins and utensils. Members are urged to contribute to the potluck. The other two tailgate/potlucks will follow the games against Kansas City on October 12th and then "da Bears" on Dec 7th.

Sunday evening November 2nd, the club will "honor" it's favorite Orlando Sentinel sports columnist with the "HalloGREENE" celebration prior to the game at Minnesota. We expect to feature a "Nostradumbass" dart board for the annual contest.

Please note that due to problems with security clearance, "Packer Claus" will not arrive until the season finale against Denver during the late afternoon December 28th. He is expected to have a Packer gifts for members. The world famous desert buffet will be available during the fourth quarter.

Kissimmee Kent can be contacted at (407) 766-0771 or cfpb138@aol.com. His home address effective September 1st will be 5036 Olde Kerry Drive with a 32837 Orlando zip.

Let's have a great season capped with a return of the Lombardi Trophy to the Lambeau atrium. It sure as hell does not belong in Tampa! "It's great being us" & "The Bears Still Suck." ☺ game. Remember, the complimentary mugs and free beer are first-come, first-served, and only for paid 2003 Central Florida Packer Backer members. Once you get your new Miller Lite mug, hang onto it. Every time you present your mug and your current CFPB membership card to the people at either One Eyed Jack's or Froggers in Hunter's Creek, you're eligible for discounted beer refills throughout the entire 2003 football season. See, told ya we would never lie about free beer! ☺

Don't forget! Kissimmee Kent Commemorative BobbleHead Day is Nov 31st, 2003.

One Eyed Jack's on the days the Packers play on network TV (like those Monday Night games) and your membership number will be entered twice! The more you hang out with the gang at One Eyed Jack's, the better your chances are at heading north to see the Packers-Broncos contest in December. The CFPB club and One Eyed Jack's will be supplying the tickets... the winner will have to bring their own long-underwear. (Tip: Get the kind with the trap door on the back just in case you eat too many brats and you have to... well, you know.) The drawing for the tickets will be held at One Eyed Jacks on November 23rd, 2003 during halftime of the Green Bay-San Francisco game... and you must be present to win! Take it from Bill Cross, who won the "Lambeau Leap" tickets last season. He said the highlight of being at Lambeau Field last December happened dur-ning at 7pm. Then at 7:15 we will show the "2002 Packer Highlights" video. The opponent for the road game will be the pesky Atlanta Falcons. Green Bay opens the schedule Monday, August 4th against the Kansas City Chiefs at the "Hall of Fame Game" in Canton, Ohio. The Packers will also be on the road Friday, August 15th at the Cleveland Browns. The first game in renovated Lambeau Field will be Saturday, August 23rd against the Carolina Panthers. The pre-season concludes Thursday, August 28th when the Tennessee Titans visit Wisconsin.

Froggers has agreed to provide gift certificates for having the correct score on the "100 Square Sheet" (no cost to enter). The certificate is only good on the date of the next Packer game. The amounts will be $30 for Kansas City and Cleveland; and $10 for the other three games. Also, if attendance hits 100 for any game there will be a second sheet giving all present a second chance to win. See all of you on the "Porch"! ☺

Phoenix can tell you, it was one of the best tailgates ever, and that means a lot coming from professionals like us. We also have lined up some pert-neer elegant hotel suites for only $55 a night at the Spring Hill Suites, located near the stadium and the airport. All we need to do is get our wide bodies on a wide body plane to join the fun! We're trying to get as many people on he same plane as possible. If you're going with the gang, book your flight for Saturday Sept 20th on Southwest flight 2513 leaving Orlando at 11:10 AM, arriving non-stop in Phoenix at 12:40 PM. Wow, if it wasn't for that time change it would only take an hour and a half to get there. Book your flight early for the best prices. We do need to know who is planning on joining us as soon as possible as the Cardinals and the Spring Hill Suites won't hold the block of tickets and rooms for too long. If you have

Bowling For Vincebucks

The Green Bay Packers may have a bye scheduled during the middle of the season, but leave it to the CFPB club to once again fill in the hole. All members are invited to the seventh annual "Bowling Party" which is set for Sunday, October 26th, 2003. We'll all begin rolling promptly at 1pm. As usual, there will be free bowling and Vincebucks distributed to all CFPB members for free bottled beer (while it lasts). The bowling party will once again be held at the Aloma Bowl (2530 Aloma Avenue in Winter Park). Once again the pin party officially starts when Packer Chris throws his first ball in the gutter, and ends after we find him laying in it. ☺

"CFPB Membership One Heck Of A Deal" Says Sams Club

Becoming a CFPB member is the best value around. Not counting the dozens of wonderful prizes that we give away each week or game specials that are offered during the season, a CFPB membership ($15 renewal, $20 new member) will pay for itself during the first week of the regular season (See Schedule of events on back page). It's such a wonderful bargain, even sneaky Bears fans occasional try and join our club. But sorry... no FIBS. ☺

Here's just a few of the things each 2003 CFPB member gets for FREE this season with the price of a single membership card.

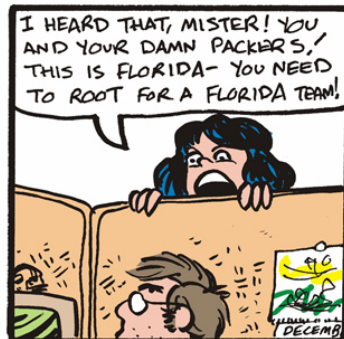

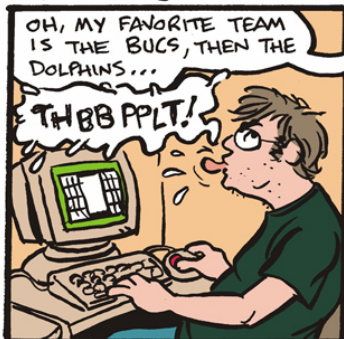

- Lots of Free Food at Packer Picnic (approx. value) $10
- Free Beer at Miller Lite Beer Party $15
- Commemorative Packer XXXI License Plate $07
- Free Bowling and Beer $20
- SIX Tailgates featuring Free Food $60
- Thanksgiving Dinner $15
- Lots of opportunities to win great Packer-prizes! $??
- Hanging out with all of your Packer Pals priceless
